STAT
Dear

I have your letter of August 30, 1970 in which you ask a number of questions concerning the Central Intelligence Agency and ask if you could be placed on my mailing list.

I think you will find the brochure I am sending you most helpful in answering your questions concerning CIA. While the budget for CIA is not made public, you will note that the budgetary process as applied to that agency involves the oversight and action of the Office of Management and Budget (formerly the Bureau of the Budget) and the Appropriations Committees of both Houses of Congress.

As you have requested, I will be most happy to place you on my mailing list. Thank you for writing me and I hope you find the information I have sent you helpful.
